

Home School Agreement

A student's best potential is achieved when home and school work together in a supportive partnership. Our home school agreement aims to encourage this vital partnership. As part of our relationship we set out our expectations of each party central to your child's education.

The school will:

- Provide a happy, caring and secure learning environment for all students
- Establish an ethos and moral framework founded on equality of opportunity, mutual respect, valuing the community and respecting the law
- Encourage the highest standards of achievement and behaviour
- Provide a broad and innovative curriculum which meets the needs of all individuals
- Provide a varied and exciting programme of sport, music, drama and dance and educational visits
- Communicate regularly with parents, giving information about students' achievement and progress

Parents will:

- Ensure their child's punctual arrival to school and regular attendance, taking all possible steps to ensure that school days are not missed
- Encourage their child to play a full and active part in school life
- Communicate promptly with the school with regards to well-being and academic progress
- Support our school's uniform policy and ensure that correct equipment is brought to all lessons
- Support our school's policies for behaviour and responsibilities and home learning
- Address any concerns about the school or its policies directly with the school

Students will:

- Treat all members of the school and local community with kindness, respect and honesty
- Have regular and punctual attendance
- Follow our school's behaviour and responsibilities code, wear correct school uniform and bring correct equipment
- Aim to achieve high standards and make the most of the opportunities offered at CCS
- Be responsible for taking good care of school's equipment, facilities and environment
- Be responsible and caring towards younger children at CCS

Together we will:

Support the home school agreement and foster relationships based on mutual respect, courtesy and trust in pursuit of encouraging every student to reach their full potential.
