1 Who are we?

Caroline Chisolm Education Trust is the 'data controller'. This means we are responsible for how your personal information is processed and for what purposes.

Caroline Chisolm Education Trust is registered as the Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO); Registration Number: Z284205X

You can contact Caroline Chisholm Education Trust as the Data Controller in writing at:

Caroline Chisholm School,
Wooldale Road,
Wootton Fields,
Northampton,
NN4 6TP.

The Data Protection Officer is at Warwickshire Legal Services.

2 What is a Privacy Notice?

A Privacy Notice sets out to individuals how we use any personal information that we hold about them. We are required to publish this information by data protection legislation. This Privacy Notice explains how we process (collect, store, use and share) personal information about our Trustees and other volunteers.

3 What is personal information?

Personal information relates to a living individual who can be identified from that information. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession.

- 'Special category' personal information reveals racial or ethnic origin
- political opinions
- religious or philosophical beliefs
- trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data,
- biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person,
- data concerning health
- data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

4 What personal information do we process about Members, Trustees and Volunteers?

The categories of Member, Trustee and Volunteers information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information such as name, any former names, address, date of birth, occupation, and employment details [Trustees only], nationality, telephone, and email contact details,
- Records of Business Interest
- Disclosure and Barring Service Certificate number and start date
- Self-assessment skills audit
- Personal profiles provided for Trust/School website
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Information about business and pecuniary interests

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information that falls into “special Categories” of more sensitive personal data. This includes:

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

For what purposes do we use personal information?

We use Member, Trustee and Volunteer data to:

- Fulfill statutory obligations
- Communicate relevant information to individuals or groups or Boards or Local Governing Bodies for the purpose of them carrying out their roles and responsibilities as a Member, Trustee.
- Establish and maintain effective governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing trustees’ details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Undertake equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

4.1 Collecting member, trustee and volunteer information

Whilst the majority of Member, Trustee Volunteer information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain Member, Trustee or Volunteer information to us or if you have a choice in this.

4.2 What are the legal reasons for us to process your personal information?

We are required to process personal information in accordance with data protection legislation and only do so when the law allows us to. Data Protection law sets out the lawful reasons we have to process your personal information, and these are as follows:

1. To comply with the law

We collect and use general purpose staff information in order to meet certain legal requirements and legal obligations placed upon the Academy Trust by UK law. We therefore have the right to process your personal information for such purposes without the need to obtain your consent.

Details of the type of processing that we must undertake, the personal data that is processed, the legislation which requires us to do so and who we may share this information with is set out in Table 1.

2. To protect someone’s vital interests

We are able to process personal information when there is an emergency and/or where a person’s life is in danger.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 2.

3. With the consent of the individual to whom that information ‘belongs’

Whilst much of the personal information is processed in accordance with a legal requirement, there is some personal information that we can only process when we have your consent to do so. In these circumstances, we will provide you with specific and explicit information regarding the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 3.

4. To perform a public task

It is a day-to-day function of the Caroline Chisholm Education Trust to ensure that Members, Trustees and Volunteers receive the training and support they require. Much of this work is not set out directly in any legislation but it is deemed to be necessary in order to ensure that Members, Trustees and Volunteers are properly supported and able to do their job.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 4.

5 Special category personal information

In order to process 'special category' data, we must be able to demonstrate how the law allows us to do so. In addition to the lawful reasons above, we must also be satisfied that ONE of the following additional lawful reasons applies:

- Explicit consent of the data subject
- Necessary for carrying out obligations and exercising specific rights in relation to employment and social security and social protection law
- Processing relates to personal data which is manifestly made public by the data subject
- Necessary for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims
- Necessary for reasons of substantial public interest
- Necessary for preventive or occupational medicine, or for reasons of public interest in the area of public health
- Necessary for archiving, historical research or statistical purposes in the public interest

The lawful reasons for each type of sensitive category personal information that we process is set out in the tables attached.

6 Who might we share your information with?

We routinely share staff information with:

- Local Authorities
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Companies House (Member/Trustees only)
- Academy Trust Members and Trustees (Members/Trustees/Local Governing Body Members)
- Local Governing Bodies (Local Governing Body Members)

We do not share information about our Members, Trustees and Volunteers unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Please refer to the tables for information about what personal information is shared with which specific third parties.

6.1 What do we do with your information?

All personal information is held in a manner which is compliant with Data Protection legislation. Personal information is only processed for the purpose it was collected. The Caroline Chisholm Education Trust monitors the personal information it processes and will only share personal information with a third party if it has a legal basis to do so (as set out above).

6.2 How long do we keep your information for?

In retaining personal information, the Caroline Chisholm Education Trust complies with the Retention Schedules provided by the Information Record Management Society. The schedules set out the Statutory Provisions under which the Trust are required to retain the information.

A copy of those schedules can be located using the following link:

<http://irms.org.uk/page/SchoolsToolkit>

6.3 Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer your personal data to a third-party country or territory, we will do so in accordance with UK data protection law.

In cases where we have to set up safeguarding arrangements to complete this transfer, you can get a copy of these arrangements by contacting us.

7 What are your rights with respect of your personal information?

Under data protection law, Members, Trustees and Volunteers have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information contact the School Data Protection Officer at Warwickshire Legal Services via email at schooldpo@warwickshire.gov.uk or alternatively.

School Data Protection Officer
Warwickshire Legal Services
Warwickshire County Council
Shire Hall
Market Square
Warwick

*Please ensure you specify which school your request relates to.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way, we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at
